This technical drawing shows a cross-section of a door threshold. It illustrates the door leaf, the frame, and the floor construction. The floor is shown with a hatched pattern, and the door is shown with a hatched pattern. The threshold is shown as a horizontal bar between the door and the floor. The drawing includes various lines and symbols to indicate the different components and their assembly.

A line drawing of a rectangular water filter unit. It has a top cover with a handle and a side handle. Two flexible, corrugated hoses are connected to the unit: one on the left and one on the right. Below the unit, there are two small O-rings or gaskets.
